

Every entertainment agency claims they're the best. Why do they try to copy ours?

First, let's talk intellectually.

A lot of newcomers to the music business are making pretty bold claims these days, but they all have one thing in common. They all say they are the best. Well, we've got news for them: all entertainment agencies are not created equal.

At STARS Productions, when we say we're the leader, we can back up our claims. Everyone knows the entertainment system is essential for any special event, yet few realize that booking agencies have become party planners and now are defined as event producers. STARS Productions has experienced all of these steps along the way in our 50 year history.

Sure, other companies have attempted similar efforts. Most of them simply fail due to their short years of inexperience. By utilizing existing intelligence properly, we at STARS Productions qualify for anything and everything that goes into your special event.

In fact, what we find interesting is that even in our early years we were still significantly more proficient than these so called "new and improved" entertainment agencies. Isn't it good to know that our experience is there?

Let's talk productivity.

Our involvement packs a surprising number of professional clients due to our performance in any working environment. While many have attempted to copy our history, success, and track record, none have come close to our standard of excellence. So, whether you're working with a small budget, or a large location, you can count on STARS Productions to work flawlessly.

Finally, experience.

STARS continues its success in this industry for 50 years and counting. We provide more entertainment than the rest of the industry combined. STARS Productions single-handedly pioneered the current live entertainment industry. Dependability is essential, as we are driven for success. Be prepared for rave reviews when you work with STARS Productions. Our clients are based on word of mouth and referrals. This gives us the guarantee of continued success for a long time to come. Being the leading edge of intelligence, productivity, and experience practically since its inception in 1965, we have given the competition a lot of things to try to copy. Doesn't 50 years say something? If you are shopping around, simply ask "How long has your company been in business?"; "Have you done any events in Carnegie Hall? The White House? Or, Madison Square Garden for that matter?"

We promise you honesty, loyalty, and hard work. So why settle for imitations? In entertainment there's only one leader: STARS Productions.
